

OUR BIG QUESTION: What does a good book need?

What events happen in the story?

What is the problem in the story?

Who are the characters in the story?

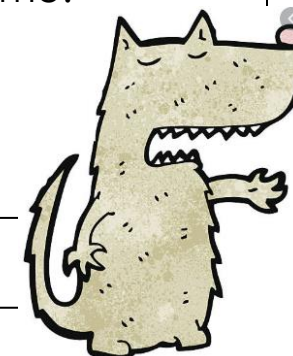

Vocabulary

Traditional tale	Setting
Problem	Event
characters	Beginning/middle/end

Things to talk about and remember:

- To know what a traditional tale is and name some.
- To know what events, problems and solutions in a story.
- Look at different character types, and decide whether our favourite characters are 'goodies' or 'baddies'
- To understand that some traditional tales have a moral and what this means.
- To know some rhyming words and rhyming strings and know some stories rhyme.
- To talk about how to stay healthy and safe.
- Learn about non-fiction books and what they have in them.
- Learn some poems.
- Learn about fictional characters in history e.g. queens, knights castles etc.

What should I already know?

- To know what a fairy tale is.
- To know a story has a beginning, middle and end.
- To name some fairy tales.
- To know what a character of a story is.
- Read lots of stories and watch story cartoon adaptations
- To know some rhyming words and rhyming strings and know some stories rhyme.
- To make healthy choices about foods, drinks, activity and tooth brushing.
- Talk about and name the different parts of a book
- Know that print has meaning – that words can tell a story

Key I can statements covered:

CL →

- I can listen to a story and say whether I enjoyed it.
- I can tell you my favourite book and the characters in it.
- I can tell you a problem in the story. I can role-play a story
- I can be a character from a story.
- I can tell you a story plot and events from a story.
- I use vocabulary from the story in play.
- I can speak in full sentences.
- I always listen and then attempt to answer questions which show comprehension of the story.

L →

- I can read at home or with an adult in school.
- I can talk about a story and anticipate what might happen next.

UTW →

- I can tell you a story about the past.
- I can tell you a Fairy tale.
- I can tell you a traditional tale from another culture.

We are Reading:

